Prize Raisin Bread

METHOD
1. Stir yeast into potato water in a large mixing bowl. Let stand 10 minutes to dissolve.
2. Mix in 3 cups flour, stirring well with a wooden spoon (or mix with paddle attachment of an electric mixer). Cover and let stand at room temperature overnight, or until risen.
3. Heat milk in a saucepan or microwaveable container, just until little bubbles break the surface; add sugar, lard or butter, and salt. Cool to lukewarm.
4. Mix milk with the yeast mixture. Gradually stir or beat in 6 cups flour to make a stiff dough, about 10 minutes.
5. Add raisins; knead on a lightly floured surface until dough is smooth and elastic. Place in a large, lightly oiled bowl. Cover and let rise at room temperature until doubled, about 1 1/2 hours.
6. Preheat oven to 350°F.
7. Shape into 3 loaves. Place in greased 9 x 5-inch loaf pans.
8. Bake 1 hour or until golden brown and sounds hollow when tapped. Cool on racks.
9. For a softer crust, brush tops with water and sprinkle lightly with granulated sugar.

INGREDIENTS

- 1 1/2 cups potato water
- 2 cups milk
- 1 (15-ounce) package Sun-Maid Natural Raisins

Japanese Rice Flour Raisin Bread

METHOD
1. In a large bowl, combine water, yeast, agave syrup, and stir to dissolve. Set aside at room temperature until frothy, about 10 minutes.
2. Stir in rice flour, butter, salt, and enough bread flour to create a firm dough. Turn out onto a floured surface and knead 8 to 10 minutes, until smooth and elastic. Add more flour only as needed to reduce stickiness. Return to the mixing bowl, dust the top lightly with flour, and cover with a damp cloth or plastic wrap. Rise at room temperature until doubled in volume, about 1 hour. Punch dough down and let rise again until doubled, another 30 minutes.
3. Coat three 9 x 5-inch loaf pans with pan spray, and line the bottom and short sides with a strip of parchment paper. Turn risen dough out onto floured surface, and with a rolling pin, roll into an 18 x 24-inch rectangle. Mix together raisins, apples, and peanuts and sprinkle evenly across the dough. Starting on a long edge, roll the dough up into a log. Cut the log into three 8-inch loaves, and place into pan seam-side down. Dust with flour, cover with plastic wrap, and rise again for 30 minutes. Preheat oven to 350°F.
4. Bake until golden brown and hollow sounding, about 40 to 60 minutes. The internal temperature should reach 210°F. Cool for 10 minutes, remove loaf from the pan, and cool completely on a rack.

INGREDIENTS
- 3 1/2 cups warm water
- 1 teaspoon active dry yeast
- 2 teaspoons agave syrup
- 1 tablespoon granulated sugar
- 3/4 cup rice flour
- 1 tablespoon softened butter
- 2 teaspoons salt

2. Mix flour, cornmeal, and yeast in a large bowl. Add enough water to form a soft dough.
3. Lightly coat a baking pan (9 x 9 or 9 x 13-inch) with oil and sprinkle with half the raisins. Place dough in pan. Let rise until double, about 1 hour.
4. Top with remaining raisins. Bake in steam oven for 35 to 40 minutes until set. Cut into squares to serve.

INGREDIENTS
- 1/2 cup Sun-Maid raisins
- 13/4 cups all-purpose flour

Makes: about 20 pieces
Almond Laced Saffron Naan with Raisins

The oven-baked flatbread naan has many variations, including those livened up with golden raisins and spices.

Makes: 12 naans

INGREDIENTS

- 4 cups unbleached all-purpose flour plus additional for dusting
- 2 teaspoons baking powder
- 1 teaspoon sugar
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon active dry yeast
- 1/2 cup plain yogurt
- 1 large egg, slightly beaten
- 3 tablespoons oil
- 1 teaspoon saffron threads dissolved in 2 tablespoons hot milk
- 1/2 cup warm, whole, or 2% low-fat milk
- Thinly sliced almonds
- 1/2 cup raisins
- Cornmeal for the peel or baking sheet

METHOD

1. Combine the flour, baking powder, sugar, salt, and yeast in a food processor, and pulse until mixed. Add the yogurt, egg, oil, and saffron mixture. Pulse until crumbly. With the machine running, gradually add milk, then the water through the feed tube in a steady stream. Process until the dough comes together into a ball and begins to clean the sides of the bowl.

2. Place dough on a work surface; lightly coat both your hands with oil and knead for 6 to 8 minutes, the dough should be medium-soft, and hold an impression when pressed. Form into a smooth ball, cover loosely with a kitchen towel and rest in a draft-free spot for 4 to 6 hours or until the dough doubles in volume.

3. Lightly oil your hands, punch down the dough, and place on a floured work surface and knead briefly until smooth. Divide into 12 portions, and roll each portion between your hands to form a smooth ball, put on a baking sheet about 2 inches apart and cover with a kitchen towel; set aside until the dough doubles in volume.

4. Repeat with remaining dough. Brush the tops of each naan with water, oil, or butter. Preheat the oven to 500°F. Sprinkle conmeals on a baker’s peel or the backside of a large baking sheet. Place 2 to 3 naans on prepared baker’s peel or sheet, brush the tops with water, slide naans directly onto the pizza stone or quarry tiles (do not use a baking sheet). Bake 4 or 5 minutes until lightly speckled. Transfer in a cloth-lined basket. Naans are at their best when hot.

Saint Lucia Buns

In Sweden, the day of Saint Lucia is celebrated on December 13 with lightly sweetened saffron buns decorated with raisins.

Makes: 20 buns

INGREDIENTS

- 1 cup butter, melted
- 1/2 teaspoon saffron threads, finely crumbled
- 1 cup milk
- 1/2 cup granulated sugar
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 2 packages (1/4-ounce each) active dry yeast
- 6 cups all-purpose flour
- 2 eggs
- 1/2 cup Sun-Maid Natural Raisins or currants, plus more for decorating
- 1 egg white

METHOD

1. Crumble saffron threads into melted butter. Let stand 30 minutes for flavor to intensify.

2. Heat milk just to a simmer then immediately remove from heat. Stir in melted butter, sugar, and salt. Pour into a mixing bowl and cool until just warm to the touch. Stir in yeast and let stand 10 minutes.

3. Beat 3/4 cups flour into yeast mixture. Stir in eggs until well blended. Add just enough of the remaining flour to form a soft dough and it pulls away from the sides of the bowl.

4. Transfer dough to a large greased bowl and turn to coat all sides. Cover with a clean towel and let rise until doubled, about 1 hour.

5. Punch down dough. Knead lightly two or three times on a floured surface. Pinch off golf ball size pieces and roll into 1/2-inch thick ropes. Shape into 5-shapes, coiling the ends. Place on a baking sheet. Cover with a towel and let rise until doubled, about 30 minutes.

6. Preheat oven to 375°F.

7. Brush buns with egg white and place one raisin in the center of each coiled end.

8. Bake until golden brown, 15 to 18 minutes. Wrap airtight to store.

Stollen

Stollen is a fruitcake made with raisins, mixed dried fruits, nuts, and spices baked into a loaf shape and covered with powdered sugar. Some stollens include a ribbon of marzipan and the traditional weight of a stollen is about 4.4 pounds, or 2 kilograms. During the Christmas season, the cake is called a Christstollen. Dresden, Germany celebrates an annual Stollenfest each December to honor the traditional cake.

Stollen is typically served at Christmas. Our adapted version is filled with apricots, cherries, golden raisins, and green pistachios for a colorful contrast. Lots of orange and lemon zest add a tangy touch.

Makes: one 7 or 8-inch cake

INGREDIENTS

10 tablespoons butter, softened
1/4 cup granulated sugar, preferably superfine baker's sugar
2 eggs
1/2 cups all-purpose flour
1/4 cup Sun-Maid Tart Cherries
1/4 cup Sun-Maid Dried Apricots, coarsely chopped
1/4 cup Sun-Maid Golden Raisins
1/4 cup shelled pistachios, whole or broken
1/4 cup chopped candied citrus peel
1/4 cup chopped candied ginger
Zest of one orange
Zest of one lemon
3 tablespoons orange juice
1 tablespoon lemon juice
Purchased white fondant, optional

METHOD

1. Preheat oven to 325°F. Line the bottom of a 7 or 8-inch springform pan with parchment paper for easier removal. Coat paper and sides of pan with cooking spray.
2. Beat butter and sugar with an electric mixer until creamy. Beat in eggs.
3. Add flour and mix well.
4. Stir in dried fruit, citrus peel, and ginger. Mix well.
5. Add zest and juices. Stir just to combine. Pour into prepared pan and smooth top.
6. Bake 45 minutes; reduce temperature to 300°F and continue baking for an additional 1 hour and 15 to 30 minutes or until golden brown and dry crumbs cling to a pick inserted in center. Top will be slightly cracked. Cool in pan 15 minutes. Remove sides and cool completely.
7. Wrap well and refrigerate for up to 1 month. Traditionally, this cake may be drizzled periodically with alcohol of choice or fruit juice during the month.
8. Cover with rolled fondant before serving, if desired.

Royal Wedding Cake

Royal Wedding Cake

Traditional wedding cake in the United Kingdom is a dense, not-too-sweet fruitcake, unlike the dark fruitcakes typically served at Christmas. Our adapted version is filled with apricots, cherries, golden raisins, and green pistachios for a colorful contrast. Lots of orange and lemon zest add a tangy touch.

Makes: two stollen, about 14 servings each

SPONGE
1 cup King Arthur Unbleached All-Purpose Flour
1/4 cup water
2 teaspoons instant yeast

DOUGH
2 1/2 cups King Arthur Unbleached All-Purpose Flour
1/4 cup (1/2 stick) butter, cut into small cubes
1/2 cup water
13/4 teaspoons salt
11/2 tablespoons butter, melted

TOPPING
2 tablespoons King Arthur Unbleached All-Purpose Flour
1/4 cup superfine baker's sugar

SPONGE
1. Combine the flour, water, and yeast in a large mixing bowl, stirring till smooth. (Or use your bread machine, canceling the machine after several minutes of mixing.)
2. Let the mixture rest overnight at room temperature.

DOUGH
1. Add the flour, butter, egg, milk, sugar, salt, yeast, almond extract, and vanilla to the sponge. Stir to combine, then knead thoroughly, using your hands, an electric mixer, a food processor, or a bread machine, till the dough is very smooth and supple.
2. Transfer the dough to a lightly greased bowl (or leave it in the bread machine), cover the bowl, and allow the dough to rise for 1 1/2 hours. It probably won't double in bulk, but will become puffy.
3. While the dough is rising, stir together the dates, raisins, cherries, flour, and almonds. Transfer the dough to a clean, lightly greased work surface. Knead the fruit into the dough until it is well-distributed; a good way to do this is to pat or roll the dough into a rough 12 x 15-inch rectangle, press the fruit and nuts evenly over its surface, then roll it up like a jelly roll, starting with a long edge. Divide the roll into two pieces, shape each piece into a rough 9-inch log, cover the logs, and let them rest for 10 minutes.
4. Pat each log into a 10 x 8-inch oval. The fruit may try to “fall out” of the dough, that’s OK, just stick it back in. Fold each oval lengthwise, bringing one side over the other but leaving a 1-inch gap, as if you were making a Parker House roll (in other words, fold the dough not quite in half). Press the edge of the top half to seal it to the bottom half, tent the dough with lightly greased plastic wrap, and allow it to rise for 2 hours, or until it’s noticeably puffy.
5. Bake the stollen in a preheated 350°F oven for 30 to 35 minutes, tenting with aluminum foil after 20 minutes if it appears to be browning too quickly. The finished loaves should be golden brown, and their internal temperature should register 190°F on an instant-read thermometer.
6. Remove the stollen from the oven, and brush them with melted butter. Transfer them to a rack to cool completely. When the stollen are cool, dust with confectioners’ sugar.

Note: For a more traditional stollen, substitute 1/2 cup candied peel, citron, or angelica for the 1/2 cup chopped dates.
Hot Cross Buns

Makes: 24 rolls

INGREDIENTS
1/2 cup warm water (110 to 115°F)
2 packages (1/4 ounce) active dry yeast
3/4 cup milk
1/2 cup butter

1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract

METHOD
1. Stir warm water and yeast in a large mixing bowl or stand mixer bowl.
2. Heat milk and butter in a saucepan or microwave until 120°F, or very warm, but not hot to the touch. Butter does not need to completely melt.
3. Stir in sugar and salt.
4. Add milk mixture, egg, 2 cups flour, cinnamon, and nutmeg to yeast. Beat until smooth.
5. Gradually mix in remaining flour. Stir in raisins. Dough will be soft and slightly sticky.
6. Cover and let rise in draft-free place for 1 hour until about doubled in bulk or, cover and refrigerate several hours or up to overnight.
7. Punch down dough and divide into 24 equal pieces. Roll into balls and place on greased or parchment-lined baking sheet.
8. Mix egg yolk with 2 teaspoons water; brush on tops of dough balls. Let rise 30 minutes.
10. Stir glaze ingredients to make a smooth frosting-like consistency. Scoop into a zip-top plastic sandwich bag and snip one corner. Squeeze in a cross over cooled rolls.

4. Stir in buttermilk with a fork until a soft dough forms.
5. Shape dough into a ball on a lightly floured surface. Divide into 2 parts and shape into 2 round balls.

1. Pour olive oil into a large saucepan over medium heat and sauté the onions and garlic until translucent. Add lentils, split peas, garam masala, and curry, and sauté for about 3 to 5 minutes. Add water to the mixture and bring it to a gentle boil. Bring heat down to a simmer and cook until soft, then drain cooking liquid.
2. In a food processor, puree three quarters of the mixture until nice and smooth, saving one quarter for texture.
3. Fold whole lentils and raisins into puree and mix well. Adjust seasoning if necessary.
4. Portion into 2 to 3 ounce cakes. Sauté over medium heat and sear lentil cakes one minute per side. Serve immediately with your favorite chutney or salad.

INGREDIENTS
- 3 curry leaves or ½ teaspoon of curry powder
